Grade 6 English, Explained

Unit 2 · Asking for and Giving Permission

HARDER PRACTICE QUESTIONS

Full marks 27

Write your answers on separate paper.

1 Questions about a rabbit [6]

All these sentences are true.

1. Apekshya has a pet rabbit.
2. Apekshya has fed her rabbit.
3. The rabbit was in the garden.
4. The rabbit ate all the cabbage.
5. Her brothers can catch it.
6. Her brothers like rabbits.

a. Change each sentence into a yes/no question. Then write its true short answer (Yes, …).
b. Sentences 1 and 2 both have has, but their questions are made in different ways. Explain why.
c. Sangam wrote these. Correct each one and say what is wrong.
i. Did the rabbit ate all the cabbage? — Yes, it ate.
ii. Is her brothers like rabbits?

2 Asking at the library [6]

Three of the rules in Tashi's school library are:
Read and talk quietly. · Return books to their proper places. · Always walk, never run.

a. For each thing Tashi wants to do, write her polite question to the librarian and the librarian's answer. The librarian says yes to two of them, and no to two, giving a reason from a rule.
i. She wants to take two books home.
ii. She wants to read a funny poem aloud to her friends.
iii. She wants to sit by the window.
iv. She wants to leave her books on the table when she goes.
b. Her friend wrote these. Correct each one and say what is wrong.
i. May I to borrow this atlas?
ii. Is it okay if I will use the dictionary?
iii. "May I go now?" "Yes, I may."
c. At home, Tashi asks her little brother, "May I borrow your crayons?" He laughs. Why? What would most people say?

3 The bird's three rules [5]

Read Three Simple Rules on pages 12 to 14 of your textbook again. The bird's three rules are:

1. Never believe everything others say.
2. Never be sad about something you don't have.
3. Never throw away what you have in your hand.

a. Which rule does each of these people need? Explain why.
i. A message on Bhumika's phone says she has won a new phone. She only has to send Rs. 1,000 first.
ii. Siddhanta cries all evening because his friend got a new bicycle and he didn't.
iii. A farmer sells his good buffalo, which gives milk every day, to buy lottery tickets.

b. When Chulong let the bird go, he broke rule 3. Which other rule did he break at the same moment? Show how, from the story.
c. Suppose Chulong had followed rule 1 from the start. Would he have let the bird go? Explain.

4 Seeing and imagining [5]

Read Where Go the Boats on pages 18 and 19 of your textbook again.

a. In the first stanza the child describes what he can see. In which line of the poem does he stop describing and start wondering? How can you tell?
b. In the last stanza, find two things that show the child is imagining, not seeing.
c. Which lines rhyme in the second stanza? Which lines rhyme in the third stanza? Is the pattern the same?
d. Write a stanza of four lines of your own about a kite flying away on the wind. Lines 2 and 4 must rhyme, and in the last two lines, imagine where the kite will end up.

5 One dot, many jobs [5]

a. Read this sentence: Mr. Thapa bought 2.5 kg of rice at 8 a.m.
i. Find every dot, and say what job each one does.
ii. Why is there only one dot after the last m, though the sentence ends there?
b. Siddhi wrote this with no full stops, no question mark and no capital letters at the start of sentences. Write it again as four sentences.

my uncle is a bus driver he drives from Pokhara to Kathmandu every day he leaves at 6 am and gets there at 2 pm do you know him

Science Playground, Katunje, Bhaktapur https://science-playground.com/learn/grade-6-english/asking-for-and-giving-permission